

BRYNMOR JONES

Resume

Brynmor Jones has conducted a wide range of choral, orchestral and operatic repertoire in many major European venues. Between 1972 and 1976 he was active in Great Britain as Musical Director of the Corelli Choir and Orchestra, the Seren Orchestra, the Christchurch Choral Society and the Gwalia Male Voice Choir.

Brynmor Jones has lived in Berlin since 1977. In 1978 he co-founded and conducted the 'Berlin Arts Company' with the overall responsibility for programming and performing several concert series of contemporary music. This led to engagements with the 'Berliner Internationale Sommerfestspiele', and in 1981 he was appointed Music Director of the Berlin Chamber Opera.

In recent years he has been variously engaged for concerts, broadcasts and recordings with the 'Scharoun-Ensemble', the RIAS Radio Choir, the NDR Radio Symphony Orchestra, Hannover, the Berlin Symphonic Film Orchestra, the East Hungarian Philharmonic Orchestra, The London Symphony Orchestra, Athelas Sinfonietta Copenhagen, the Rhineland Philharmonic and the Berlin Chamber Opera.

From 1996 to 2002 Brynmor Jones was sole Artistic Director of the Berlin Chamber Opera.

As a composer Brynmor Jones has specialised in writing "classical" film and TV scores, with an emphasis on large orchestral arrangements; projects include scoring for ARD,ZDF,RTL,WDR,NDR, Arte, Discovery Channel and several German Independents, as well as filmmusic and arrangements for Time-Warner, Shapiro and Carolco in the USA.
